Just A Word...

by Fr. Harvey

Within 25 days, we celebrate the second most important feast in the liturgical year, the Feast of Christ's Incarnation, Christmas. As with every liturgical celebration, we do more than just recall a past event. We celebrate a reality that affects us now. To know that Jesus, the Son of God, was born in the flesh, is a point of history. But to allow God's entrance in our human history to affect my life now is present reality. The community of faith which is the Church sets aside four weeks preceding the Feast of Christmas to help us prepare for the coming celebration. The Season of Advent begins today. In order to more fully share in this time of hope-filled waiting, our Sunday Masses during Advent will invite your active participation.

On this first Sunday of Advent, each of us will be invited to become aware of some personal need, some spiritual gift which Christ's presence can fulfill in our own lives. You may wish to acknowledge this need in writing and present it at the time of offering in the Mass. The next Sundays of Advent will be occasions for us to respond with some concrete sign of our willingness to be filled with the many gifts Christ shares with us who are open to his coming. On the second, third, and fourth Sundays of Advent, individuals and families will be invited to bring a gift which could be distributed by the Saint Vincent de Paul Society to needy families and individuals. The gifts will be carried in the offertory procession and placed around or on the Tree of Hope which will stand in front of St. Joseph's altar in the sanctuary. As we present something made by ourselves or purchased by ourselves, we recall that we must empty ourselves of some selfishness or self-concern in order to be filled with the richness of Christ's own love. We would hope that this involvement could include the whole family as we prepare together for Christ's birth in each of our lives.

Parish Nuptial

Mr. & Mrs. Brian Dusbiber

On Saturday evening, November 22, 1975, Brian David Dusbiber and Mary Catherine Vanlerberghe pledged their solemn vows of marriage during a Nuptial Mass celebrated by Fr. Jerry Ploof.

Brian is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dusbiber of Ann Arbor, and Mary Catherine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vanlerberghe of Escanaba, Michigan.

Witnesses of the vows were Michael Lanczki of Ann Arbor, and Rosemary Vanlerberghe of Houston, Texas. James Vanlerberghe was the lector, and John and Joe Pryce were the acolytes.

Music was provided by Mrs. Ruth Lorenz, soloist, accompanied by Mr. Mel Light, organist. The newlyweds will be living in De Kalb, Illinois.

Congratulations Brian and Kathy!

The Right To Food

Why a right to food?

This right grows out of the right to life. It is rooted in the value God places on human life and in the belief that "the earth is the Lord's." (Ps. 24). We are stewards, not owners of His earth, and we are accountable for the way we diminish or enhance the lives of others. Old Testament precedent for this right includes the law requiring that some of the harvest be left for the poor to glean, and the message of the prophets (e.g., Isaiah 3:13-15 and Amos 4-8), who never assume that people are hungry or poor because they are lazy, but - except in time of famine - because they are treated unjustly. The New Testament further depicts the Kingdom as a joyous sharing of food (parables, feeding of multitude, Passover/Communion) and stresses our obligation toward the hungry (Luke 16:19-31 and I John 3:17-18).

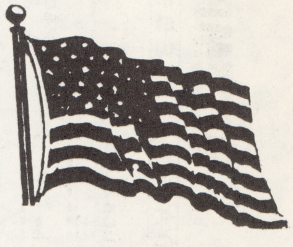
Like all rights, the right to food is connected with related rights and responsibilities - the right to life and the right and responsibility to work, for example. The term "right" moves us beyond charity into the realm of justice - a biblical word, which helps us think not merely of having an opportunity to share from our own abundance, but an obligation to change an unjust situation in which millions go hungry when food is available and hunger, as the world knows it today, is unnecessary. Dealing with hunger in terms of a human right reminds us that we are accountable to those who hunger and above all to the Lord (Matthew 25). Consequently we have an obligation as well as an opportunity to exercise the right of our citizenship for the hungry, by expressing to our leaders what our will is, and what we think the will of this nation should be regarding God's hungry children.

A resource which is helpful in this area is the book, Bread for the World written by Arthur Simon. It is available at Logos Book Store across the street. This book contains helpful information and gives valuable insights into the problem of hunger.

WHAT CAN I/WE DO?

A right to food resolution is before Congress at this moment. Christians across the country have joined together to send at least one million letters to the House of Representatives, the Senate, and the President by December 10. The resolution was initiated by Bread for the World, a Christian citizens group. This group intends to work in the political sphere so that the hunger problem may be eradicated at its roots. As Christians, we are called to take a stand for justice. WE can write to our Congressional representatives and ask them to vote for the right to food resolution:

H. Con. Res 393
(Number of the House Resolution)



Congressman Marvin Esch (R)
U.S. House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

S. Con. Res 66
(Number of the Senate Resolution)

Philip Hart (D)
U.S. Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Robert Griffin (R)
U.S. Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Please write today! Your letter is as important as your contribution to charity!

Can You Help?

Next Sunday will be the last time that we are asking for any stamps you have still around the house ... green stamps, red, orange, yellow, anything you have been saving. As you know, only non-profit organizations may still redeem these stamps. Judy Habetler of our parish has been sending them to the companies and so far close to $200.00 has been realized from various companies. If you do still have them, please bring them along to church with you next Sunday. We hope then that Judy can send them in for redemption and we will be finished with this project.

Tickets for the New Year's Dance are on sale at the rectory. Drop in and purchase yours soon. $10.00 per person.

Senior Citizens

You are invited to another get-together on Friday, December 5th. The day will consist of Mass at 10:30 a.m. followed by a potluck in the church hall. You are asked to bring casseroles or dishes for salad, main course, vegetable, dessert. It would help also to have you bring your own dishes and utensils to ease the dish-washing job. Men who prefer to bring bread/rolls, coffee, butter are encouraged to do so. Let us hope that we have as fine a showing as we did before for a day when we have a chance to celebrate life together.

Congressional Record

RESOLUTION DECLARING AS NATIONAL POLICY THE RIGHT TO FOOD

House: H. Con. Res. 393
Senate: S. Con. Res. 66

Whereas an estimated 460 million persons, almost half of them young children, suffer from acute malnutrition because they lack even the calories to sustain normal human life; and

Whereas those who get enough calories but are seriously deficient of proteins or other essential nutrients may include half of the human race; and

Whereas the President, through his Secretary of State, proclaimed at the World Food Conference a bold objective for this nation in collaboration with other nations: "that within a decade no child will go to bed hungry, that no family will fear for its next day's bread, and that no human being's future and capacities will be stunted by malnutrition;" and

Whereas all the governments at the World Food Conference adopted this objective; and

Whereas in our interdependent world, hunger everywhere represents a threat to peace everywhere; and

Whereas the coming bicentennial provides a timely occasion to honor this nation's founding ideals of "Liberty and justice for all," as well as our tradition of assisting those in need, by taking a clear stand on the critical issue of hunger: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved That it is the sense of the (Senate) (House of Representatives) that

1. Every person in this country and throughout the world has the right to food - the right to a nutritionally adequate diet - and that this right is henceforth to be recognized as a cornerstone of U.S. policy; and
2. This right become a fundamental point of reference in the formation of legislation and administrative decisions in areas such as trade, assistance, monetary reform, military spending and all other matters that bear on hunger; and
3. Concerning hunger in the United States we seek to enroll on food assistance programs all who are in need, to improve those programs to insure that recipients receive an adequate diet, and to attain full employment and a floor of economic decency for everyone; and
4. Concerning global hunger this country increase its assistance for self-help development among the world's poorest people, especially in countries most seriously affected by hunger, with particular emphasis on increasing food production among the rural poor; and that development assistance and food assistance, including assistance given through private, voluntary agencies, increase over a period of years until such assistance has reached the target of one percent of our total national production (GNP).

IT'S ADVENT, THE SEASON WHEN WE MERCHANDISERS WATCH AND WAIT FOR THE CHRISTMAS BOOM.

FIRST ADVENT: NOV 30, 1975

Advent is a profitable season.
What kind of money will we make?
A purse that time wears holes in?
Or a treasure in heaven,
where neither thief nor moth comes near?
